MOTION TO RESCHEDULE TRIAL DATE AND RELATED DEADLINES

The Plaintiff, Sigma Opportunity Fund II, LLC (hereinafter “Sigma”), respectfully moves the court to enter an order rescheduling the September 24, 2019, 9:00 trial date and related deadlines, include the discovery cut off, for approximately three months for the following reasons:

1. The court dismissed the debtor’s Chapter 11 petition case on February 6, 2019.

The debtor filed, however, a motion to alter or amend on February 14, 2019. The court has not ruled on the motion to alter or amend.

2. Sigma does not wish to expend financial resources pursuing the litigation if the case remained dismissed. Sigma will need to litigate its claim if the motion to alter or amended is granted.

3. The Defendant does not oppose this motion.

WHEREFORE, Sigma respectfully moves the court to enter an order rescheduling the September 24, 2019 9:00 am trial date and related deadlines, include the discovery cut off, for approximately three months or for other such relief the court deems to be just and equitable.

Dated: February 26, 2018.

Respectfully submitted
